MAYORALTY RACE SIMMERS DOWN WITH DENIALS

Ohio Legislature Enters Final Day

Cooper's Legislative Program Virtually Complete As Solons Start Last Session of Bill Passing; Will Recess Until April 16, Then Adjourn

Columbus, April 6.—With Gov. Y. Cooper's legislative program virtually completed, the Ohio legislature, this morning, entered the final day of bill passing for the present session.

The senate and house have agreed to recess today for 10 days. On April 18, a few of the solons will be on hand to witness the presiding officer of the two legislative branches signing the bills passed today and to witness the adoption of a resolution calling for sine die adjournment.

It remains to complete the program for the senate to enter in the action of the house in passing the Sullivan-Bostwick bill, which increases the state gasoline tax from three to four cents per gallon, and for the house to accept state amendments to the big appropriation bill which authorizes expenditure of approximately $114,000,000 during the coming two years to defray the costs of state governmental operations.

Gov. Cooper's legislative program includes statement into law of the following measures:

The caper bill, repealing the provision of the Pence act which permits public utilities to file a bond with the state utilities commission and collect increased rates prior to the commission's approval of such rates, and establishing a bureau of investigation designed to aid the commission in expediting disposal of rate cases.

The Dicker bill, reducing the state tax on foreign insurance companies to 2 1/2 per cent.

The Marshall-Jones bill, redefining and revising the state's corporation laws.

The Gillen-Ward bill, revising and redefining the state's criminal procedure code.

ELECTRIC SHOCK FATAL TO MAN

2,200 Volts Pass Through
Body; Wife Escapes
Electrocution

Lisbon, April 6.—Elmer S. Dickey, 44, electrician, was electrocuted at his home near Legtown late Friday afternoon when 2,200 volts of electricity passed through his body.

The electricity in Dickey's home was supplied by a mining company.

Mr. Dickey was ironing when the current failed. Dickey crawled under a porch to check the cause and came in contact with the high voltage wire.

Mr. Dickey heard a crackling as the current passed through Dickey's body to the ground and was about to pull him from under the porch when a fuse at the mine blew out.

Heads state that this probably saved his life as she would have been electrocuted had she touched Dickey's body.

Dickey is survived by his widow and two sons, Leland of Canton, and Dale of the home. A sister Mrs. Ella Gilmore of Lisbon, also survives. He was a member of the Christian church at Rogers.

Funeral service will be held Monday at the home at 2 p. m. Rev. E. L. Lake of Lisbon, will officiate.

ASSES WILL OPEN MONDAY

Kindergarten School Starts Again

All public schools will also reopen Monday.

CONSERVATION BILL NOW UP TO GOVERNOR

Will Do Away With Old
Fish and Game
Division

Columbus, April 6.—Preparations were being made today by House Clerk John P. Maynard to transmit to Gov. Myers Y. Cooper the Emmons conservation bill.

This measure, introduced by Sen. V. D. Emmons, summit county, passed the senate March 26, by a vote of 26 to 1, and went through the house, unamended, late yesterday by a vote of 99 to 9. It was supported by the governor and is one of the measures included in the "administration's" legislative program.

The bill authorizes the governor to appoint a state conservation commission, consisting of eight members, empowered to select, with the approval of the governor, a commissioner of conservation. Providing for the creation of a state department of conservation, the measure abolishes the present division of fish and game, in the department of agriculture, and transfers to the conservation department all functions of the fish and game bureau as well as all powers now vested in the state department of public works relative to inland waters.

The governor is to select one member of the conservation commission as president who will, also, be a member of the governor's cabinet.

It will be the duty of the conservation department to establish the following bureaus:

A natural resource bureau to supervise conservation of such natural resources as streams, lakes, swamps, ponds, reservoirs, waterways, drainage, watersheds, detritus, waste lands, wild flowers, game cover, eliminate obnoxious vegetation and cooperate with the state forestry department.

TEN KILLED IN FREAK STORMS OVER MID-WEST

High Winds Take Toll In Areas; Rainfall Is Heavy

RADIO BROADCAST
STATION WRECKED

Detroit Is Hard Hit By
Downpour; 30,000
Marooned

Chicago, April 6.—Ten persons are known to be dead and scores injured today as a result of freak storms that ravaged a half dozen Middle Western States in the wake of yesterday's abnormal heat wave. Property damage probably will total a million dollars.

Wisconsin and Minnesota were the hardest hit, with Iowa, Nebraska and Michigan reporting heavy property damage.

The storms varied in the different states from torrential downpours to tornadoes. In Minnesota and Wisconsin buildings were demolished with attendant loss of life. Most of the casualties resulting in the rural section.

Communication and power lines were blown down with service temporarily paralyzed.

C. F. Bryan, 62, a farmer, was killed in the vicinity of Rice Lake, Wis. Two others, living on a farm near Rice Lake, are missing and their bodies are believed buried in the wreckage of their home.

Minneapolis, Clayton, Wis., and Little Rock, Ia., reported one death each. Reeves, Wis., reported two dead.

Radio Station Wrecked
The transmitting plant of radio station WHRM at Minneapolis was demolished by the storm, but employees escaped injury.

The number of dead and injured may be swelled as wire communication over the stricken territory is restored. Several of the more seriously injured are not expected to live.

In Detroit a terrific downpour on the East Side marooned 30,000 residents when Congress creek overflowed its banks. In Midland, Mich., 300 families fled their homes when four dams in the Tittabawassee river collapsed following 14 hours of incessant rainfall. The river was 12 feet above flood stage and 2,000 acres were seven feet under water.

Throughout the storm-struck area farms and cattle were hard hit. It was estimated that several days would be required before an accurate check-up on the toll could be accomplished.

GROH JURY TO REPORT TODAY

Rumor Has It That An Indictment Will Be Returned

New Philadelphia, O., April 6.—The Tuscarawas county grand jury, in session here, is considering the case of ex-Mayor Peter J. Groh, of Dover, O., charged with accepting a $50 liquor bribe, is expected to report sometime today.

In view of the fact Gov. Myers Y. Cooper thought the charges serious enough to dismiss the man from office, reports emanating from the jury chamber say that an indictment will be returned.

And while that body is deliberating on the charges, a state examiner is going over the former mayor's books, following assertions of L. W. Lewis, state dry agent, that Groh "pocketed" nearly $6,000 in liquor fines.

Groh's alleged disgrace grows out of his alleged acceptance of a $50 bribe from Ed Little, "ace" of the prohibition enforcement squad, who allegedly bought protection for a mythical carload of liquor that was to have been run through Dover.

According to the agents, Groh also possessed a pint of liquor given to him by one of them and there is a possibility that the grand jury may also indict him for possession of intoxicating liquor.

Congressman Dies

Washington, April 6.—Rep. Whitten Martin, Democrat of Louisiana, died in Garfield hospital here today following an abdominal operation.

Today's trip was mainly for the purpose of selecting a camp site and making plans for future excursions, although rods and reels were taken along.

A picnic lunch was carried for members of the party, which included Mrs. Hoover, Secretary of the Interior Wilbur, Mark

Dog Owners Warned To Get Licenses

Lisbon, April 6.—Final notices have been issued to dog owners who have failed to obtain a 1929 license tag, where the record shows such licenses were issued last year.

Unless immediate application is made for 1929 license charges will be filed against such owners as provided by law. The notices have been mailed by County Dog Warden C. E. Donahay.

While over 5,600 dog licenses have been issued so far this year, approximately 2,000 more remain to be put out according to the license sale record of last year.

JIMENEZ LOSS HAS SCATTERED REBEL FORCES

Observers Vision Battle
Near El Paso In Short Time

LIKELY IN JUAREZ

Predict Evacuation Of Cities In Front Of Federal Drive

Mexico City, April 6.—With two powerful Federal expeditionary forces moving northward in the states of Chihuahua and Sinaloa without encountering opposition today, a third Federal division waged a campaign for the subjugation of the so-called religious insurrection in the states of Jalisco, Guanajuato, Michoacan, Durango and Zacatecas.

The religious rebellion is now regarded by the government as its most difficult problem. Gen. Saturnino Cedillo, leading 5,000 troops, is engaged in a "mopping up" campaign in the state where the religious Rebels are most numerous.

Chihuahua Is Quiet
Gen. Plutarco Calles, secretary of war, and commander in chief of all the Federal armies, informed President Portes Gil that he thought that there was slight prospect of any further fighting in Chihuahua.

He stated that Gen. Jesus Gonzalo Escobar, leader of the Rebels who were disastrously defeated at La Reforma, had fled to Sonora to join Gen. Manzo, Tepete and other Rebel leaders there. He declared that Gen. Marcelino Caraveo, commander of the Rebels in Chihuahua City, was preparing to flee across the border into the United States.

Calles predicted that the Rebels would evacuate Chihuahua City before the Federal advance and that Gen. Almanzan would occupy the city without being opposed.

West Coast Trouble Slight
On the West Coast, there were equally slight prospects of immediate fighting. Gen. Gardenas, leading the Federal forces in Sinaloa, reported that Gen. Manzo was retreating into Sonora. Gardenas stated that he expected to enter Culiacan, capital of Sinaloa today.

Military observers here believe that all the Rebels in Chihuahua and Sinaloa would eventually concentrate in northern Sonora, probably at Juarez, for a last stand. In that event, the residents of El Paso would have another opportunity of witnessing a battle across the Rio Grande, this time with the Rebels defending instead of attacking.

Reports received here yesterday stated that Federal sympathizers had concentrated a force of 800 men at Cumadale, Chihuahua, 28 miles east of Juarez, with the intention of attacking that city in the near future.

SIX HOUR DAY NOW ADVOCATED

Railroad Organizations See Manner
Of Cutting Down Unemployment
Over Nation

Cleveland, April 6.—Recommendation of gradual shortening of working hours until a maximum six hour day is reached was made as a solution for unemployment by the railroad labor executives association which ended a three day session here today.

Twenty-one railroad brotherhoods were represented at the meetings. It was pointed out by D. B. McRobert, chairman of the association, that in the last nine years 350,000 railroad men have been thrown out of work and many full time workers put on part time.

Requa, California oil magnate; Capt. Wilson Brown, the White House naval aide, and Major Long of the Marine Corps, who will have supervision of the construction of the summer fishing camp.

It is the president's intention to construct a small bungalow or shack in the area for his use later on.

The trip was made in three White House automobiles. Two hours of easy driving will put the presidential party in the heart of the park.

During Program

With a fellowship supper, which brought together 350 people, many of them Sunday school officers and teachers, the Sunday school conference, sponsored by six Salem churches, English Lutheran, Baptist, Presbyterian, First Friends, Methodist and Christian, opened Friday night at the Memorial building. Representatives of schools in nearby towns were among those in attendance.

Robert P. Vickers, chairman of the committee, which arranged the conference, presided at the supper and introduced the speakers.

Dr. P. H. Gordon gave the invocation. The conference is the biggest affair that Salem Sunday school workers have attempted for years, and is one of the most successful events in Sunday school history here.

Hall Leads Singing
Pep singing led by J. S. Hall was featured and during the supper music was furnished by the Christian church orchestra under the direction of Samuel Krauss, Jr. Mrs. James Hayden is concert pianist.

The stage was banked with ferns and the tables were decorated with red tulips.

Vickers gave splendid introductory remarks, during which he thanked the churches for their cooperation in putting the conference over.

Carey M. Young, of Columbus, director of young people's work, Ohio council of Religious Education, one of the principal conference workers, discussed "Our Young People."

Young told his audience that it is a wonderful thing to have the young people behind the activities of the church.

"When a church does not have something for young people to do it will lose them," he said.

Young expressed his confidence in the youth of today, and pointed out that they need advice and counsel to attain the best things in life.

$50,000 VERDICT AWARDED BOY

Injured by Aerial Bomb;
Jury Gives Heavy
Damages

Canton, April 6.—A verdict for $50,000 damages, the largest judgment ever returned in Stark county, was returned by a jury late yesterday in favor of Thomas Brenner, 9, who was injured in the explosion of an aerial bomb here last summer.

A suit in behalf of the boy was brought against the Hudson Fireworks company and the Stark County Agricultural society, jointly, asking $100,000. The suit related that the boy's right arm was badly injured, his hand blown off, and his right eye put out. The boy found the bomb, unexploded, following the Veterans of Foreign Wars celebration and it exploded while he was playing with it at his home.

The veterans organization was originally named as one of the defendants in the case but this part of the suit was dismissed.

The verdict followed a two-day trial. The defendants announced they would appeal.

Climbing onto the running board of the machine, unnoticed by the driver Mrs. F. L. Thompson, her school teacher, the girl fell to her death when she attempted to stoop down and scoop up the hat, which had been carried up the road by the wind in advance of the automobile.

Mrs. Thompson had taken several pupils to Miamisburg to attend a baseball game, and were returning to Tippicanoe City.

UNITED STATES FACES PROBLEM IN REPARATIONS

Joining of Debtors Seen
As Opposition To Creditor Nation

Berlin, April 6.—A league of debtor nations, uniting through common interest all the principal powers of Europe (both victors and vanquished) into opposition against the United States—as the sole creditor nation—this is the specter gradually emerging from the Paris reparations conference, according to the view of international experts here, today.

At the same time a powerful weapon is being put into the hands of the threatened debtor league by the creation of a world reparations bank, which could easily be used to unite the resources of all Europe against Wall St.

All of this is a result of the combining of war debts and reparations at Paris as a basis of the reparations settlement. The allies have sought this development and United States has fought against it since the treaty of Versailles was drawn and signed.

Through this combination, if a settlement is reached Germany would tacitly assume as part of her indemnity to the allies, the allied war debts to the United States.

This animates the debt conflict between Germany and the allies and unites their interests against their joint creditor—the United States.

GUN EXPLODES;
BABY VICTIM

Revolver Falls From Pocket Of Youth; Bullet Kills Tot;
Police Start Search

Urbana, O., April 6.—An intensive police hunt was in progress here today for 16-year-old Denzil Floss, who is wanted by authorities for questioning in connection with the accidental shooting of 3-year-old Raymond Gillespie, at St. Paris, near here, yesterday.

The child died a half hour later in a doctor's office where he had been taken after a bullet from the gun of Floss had entered his abdomen, when the revolver discharged as it dropped to the floor.

Floss fled immediately after the shooting and has not been located by police.

The 16-year-old youth was said to have been visiting the baby's elder sister, when a sudden movement threw the gun from his pocket.

TWO DECLARE INTENTIONS OF MAKING ENTRY

Tomlinson, Russell Say
They Will Run In Contest

WOMEN MENTIONED
DENY CANDIDACY

Hiddleston Still Silent As To His Position In Affair

Competition in the August primary for mayor in Salem today appeared to have narrowed to two candidates, with vigorous denials issued by four persons prominently mentioned in political rumors as prospective entrants into the race. Doubt is expressed by four others.

George E. Russell, former mayor for two terms, and C. F. "Fred" Tomlinson, well known merchant, Friday afternoon declared intentions of filing application with the county election board for candidacy in the mayoralty race, while definite statements to the contrary were issued by both women mentioned in rumors—Mrs. Anna Stratton and Mrs. Anna Heck—M. B. Krauss, and John W. Post.

Russell Has Served
Russell and Tomlinson are both Republicans. Russell was defeated after serving the major portion of one term, and all of a second, by Mayor Phil G. Hiddleston, in 1927 Democratic landslide by a majority of only 293 votes, but will attempt a comeback this year.

It will be Tomlinson's first advent into city politics.

Krauss early this week denied that he was to run for the office, while both Mrs. Stratton and Mrs. Heck issued denials Friday afternoon. Mrs. Stratton declared she had no intentions of entering the race, saying that her duties as member of city council, representing second ward will keep her sufficiently busy.

Mrs. Heck, who at one time served on the city legislative body from the Fourth ward, issued the declaration that she had given the mayoralty no consideration and will not be a candidate.

Post, mayor for two terms, previous to the late J. B. Schaefer, who was succeeded by Russell, will confine his duties to activities as constable of Perry township, to which position he was appointed recently by the county trustees.

TOP SPEED UNPROFITABLE

As far back as 1893 American railroad trains were capable of traveling at more than 100 miles an hour. In 1901, over a five-mile stretch, one engineer set a record of 123 miles an hour—two miles a minute, flat! Yet today the country's fastest scheduled train travels at only 66 miles an hour on an average, and an average 45 miles an hour is considered a good maximum for a main-line train over a long run.

These figures would make it appear that instead of progressing, railroads have slowed down in the past 25 years, while motor cars and aeroplanes have been making this the speed age. But such is not the case, points out A. W. Somerville, analyzing the changes in recent railroad operation in the April issue of The World's Work.

The fact is that while top-speed schedules have been reduced, main-line trains everywhere are transporting passengers at from 10 to 20 miles an hour faster than a generation back, and with a vastly greater degree of safety, he finds.

It is the "Safety First" consideration that has slowed down, for example, the fliers that once made the New York-Chicago run in 18 hours and that now takes 20 hours for the trip.

"Safety demanded the all-steel car," points out Mr. Somerville, who shows that the average passenger train of today weighs five times as much as that of the early days of the century. "The net result was heavier equipment and heavier power. Safety requires regular arrivals and departures. And from the other side of the fence efficient operation demands strict adherence to time-tables and constant observance of safety rules. As a by-product you have an increased cost."

Today it is worth an engineer's job to run ahead of his scheduled time, even for a short distance, and watches of the train crews are inspected primarily not to keep them from being slow but to prevent them from being fast, points out the World's Work writer.

The roads have discovered that a reputation for punctuality for the entire system pays far more than the reputation of a single stunt train, since they can carry more passengers on more trains and at a greater average speed over the same system of tracks.

Moreover, the railroads have been restrained from a greater increase of average speed by legislation which shackled their development before the war and by a thin margin of profits over operating costs since. The wear and tear on equipment at higher speeds make the stepping up of schedules unprofitable, but not impossible, under present conditions, says Mr. Somerville, adding that "if 60-miles an hour schedules for 500 miles or more will pay a profit, then the railroads will arrange to humor the sufferers from 'velocititis'."

What Others Say

LAYING WHITE HOUSE GHOST
That shadowy and translucent figure that has stalked the capital since the Taft administration, has been definitely laid by President Hoover. For the next four years at least, that well-known "haunt," the White House Spokesman, will not fit across the pages of the nation's press.

During the administration of Taft news of an official nature, but on which the president preferred not to be quoted, was accredited to "White House officials," "high government officials" or some other source thinly veiled. President Wilson adopted a similar plan when he did not wish to be directly quoted and hedged correspondents about with a variety of restrictions.

President Harding made free use of the "Spokesman" as an instrument through which he gave expression to opinions on passing events, and was the first president to demand that questions be put in writing. He established a rule, outgrowth of newspaper opposition to his administration, that his failure to answer a question so put should not be commented upon.

President Coolidge took the "Spokesman" under his wing and walked with him during almost his entire regime. So freely did he use this vague figure that it became more or less of a standing national joke and defeated his purpose, inasmuch as the president and the "Spokesman" soon became synonymous in the public mind.

The passing of this wraith is gratifying to press and public alike. Statements coming direct from the president have an air of authenticity lacking in those of camouflaged origin and give the people a feeling of greater participation in national events. Mr. Hoover's choice is a happy one for all concerned.—Columbus Citizen.

DANGER IN RESUMING OCCUPATION TOO SOON

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
(United States Senator from New York)

In the very nature of things as they are at present, there will be children to have measles, and adults to have influenza or hard colds. The time will come when these diseases will disappear, but that glad day has not arrived.

For a long time doctors will be needed to deal with these ailments. It is fortunate we have the medical men.

But here is a problem: Why do not people realize that it is the aftermath of these ailments that is dangerous? Indeed, the after-effects of the troubles of I have mentioned, as well as of other diseases, are far more important than their immediate effects.

Nobody dies of measles, or influenza, or colds. If anybody dies, it is because of a "complication" of an effect produced by the original disease.

The pus germs, the germs of pneumonia, the germs of tuberculosis, are always watchfully waiting. They are all ready to pounce on the body weakened by disease.

The most important thing about measles and influenza and such ailments, is to get well of the measles or influenza without getting something else. For that reason, the after care of a patient is in many respects vastly more important than his care in the height of the disease.

In olden times, it was announced in triumphant tones, "The fever is broken." Yes, the fever may be passed, but there is much left to do. The weakened and emaciated and debilitated victim of disease must be restored to strength, vigor and renewed resistance.

I have in mind a dear woman who first had influenza. Then she developed broncho pneumonia. After the acute symptoms of the latter disease disappeared she failed to "get up" as she should.

About that time I happened in for a neighborly call and was asked for a professional opinion. Since her own doctor had come on a vacation I undertook an examination. This revealed a dullness in the upper part of the right lung.

A doctor doesn't like this condition. When it is associated with occasional elevation of temperature a degree or two above normal, coughing spells, loss of appetite and red cheeks, it means infection. What sort of infection? Probably tubercular.

That was what happened in the case I have described. Lowered resistance and the weakened lung, had prepared the way for the germs of tuberculosis.

Let me say in strongest terms: Don't consider yourself well and ready for your ordinary duties until the last evidence of disease has disappeared.

It is a great mistake to go to work

Those whose birthday it is are on the eve of a very lively and progressive year, with all things responding to initiative and a spirit of bold adventure. Finances should expand as well as business, employment bring recognition and writings gain many pretexts. A child born on this day may be active, progressive and well equipped for success and advancement to the place of its ambitions in life.

If you should enter the Temple for no other purpose than asking, you shall not receive.—Kahlil Gibran.

For Monday, April 8

MONDAY'S astrological forecast is a rather inauspicious one, holding menace to business as well as to the personal well-being. There may be delays and disappointments in the affairs, as well as sudden visitations of a devastating nature, be careful in speculations, litigation, and safeguard the physical self. There may be compensations in the personal relations.

Those whose birthday it is are confronted by a hazardous year to fortunes, business and physical safety. Precaution should be taken against all manner of peril. Shun speculation and law. Domestic and social affairs may bring consolations. A child born on this day may have excellent graces and qualities for success—which it may need for surmounting many difficult situations in life. It may have a leaning to invention, original thought and occultism.

too soon. You may count yourself a loser if you stay in after the acute symptoms have gone. You may think you can "work off" your ailment. This is foolish. It is worse than foolish—it is positively dangerous.

Make sure your patient is really well iron measles, influenza or a hard cold, before he is permitted to get back to hard work.

Window shopping through the world

Looking around, comparing, deciding on colors and flavors and textures and designs — “shopping” for many of us is half the fun of buying things and having them. Other people (more scientifically minded) always know exactly what they want, and where they want to buy it.

But before anyone definitely can say "I like that—I'll take it" in order to spend money wisely, some "looking around" must be done.

Looking around by reading the advertisements saves time and trouble and money. For advertisements are the shop windows of a world of manufacturers. You don't need to walk up Fifth Avenue or past the corner drug store to see what So-and-So is offering in the way of silk stockings, or refrigerators, or tooth paste, or automobiles, or schools for young George, or vacations for the whole family.

The advertisements picture, describe, explain the merchandise and the new ideas that are displayed and talked about from Maine to California.

MAYORALTY RACE

could not be reached for a definite statement, but his candidacy is reported to be practically assured. Frank Ballantine, county clerk of courts is being asked by friends to throw his hat into the ring.

John Davidson, of the Salem China company, whose name also was brought up in the city's political data for the race has made no declaration.

The Democrats fail to figure greatly in the discussions. Mayor Hiddleston's name being the only one suggested on their ticket. As in the majority of civic situations, however, Hiddleston refuses to comment.

Hiddleston Uncertain
There are many arguments concerning the present executive's future plans, it being stated by some that he is considering employment in other lines for next year, while others maintain that he is certain to apply for re-election. The situation he has created by his own reticence on the matter is one of the features of political discussion in the city.

The denials of the two feminine residents have failed to dim arguments of certain parties who maintain vigorously that women will be represented in the primaries.

No other names have been mentioned, but these persons are emphatic, that this year, for the first time in Salem's history, a women will be entered on ballots for the office of mayor.

The earliness of the opening of political gossip in the city appears to be a ready indication that a hotly contested race will be staged and several more persons, whose names are being kept secret, may be added to the list of candidates before the expiration of the time fixed by law in which they must file applications.

RHEUMATISM OVERCOME BY WALKING

It has been found that an especially constructed and treated pair of heel plates (one zinc and one copper) placed in the shoes of sufferers, quickly ride the wearers of rheumatic pains, sciatica and stiff joints, as well as tones up the system in general. Thus the sufferer literally "walks" his way to health. Experiments in hundreds of cases prove these heel plates to be a boon to the sufferer in most severe cases of rheumatism. Emith's Eureka Co., 284 1st St., McKendzie, Tenn., is so anxious to prove their statement that they are willing to send any sufferer their liberal trial offer. Write them today—Adv.

SURPRISE MRS. NEVIN

Mrs. Bruce Nevin, a recent bride, was honored with a surprise party given by Miss Sara Mae Zimmerman Friday evening at her home, Wilson st. A shower of beautiful gifts was a feature of the evening. Bridge was introduced with five tables in play. Mrs. Michael Schuller and Mrs. Loren Herbert won prizes.

Miss Zimmerman served a two-course lunch. Mrs. Nevin before her marriage was Miss Clara Schmid.

Argue Speed Bill

Senate and house leaders today continued their efforts to induce the two legislative branches to reach an agreement relative to the Boden bill which would eliminate the present 35-an-hour speed limit for motor vehicles on highways in Ohio.

As it passed the house, the Boden bill authorized the operation of autos at "a reasonable" speed. The senate inserted amendments including the decree that the speed limit in rural territory should not exceed 45 miles an hour. With the senate standing pat on its amendments the house refused to accept them. One conference committee failed to make any headway yesterday and was discharged. Another committee is scheduled to resume negotiations today.

The governor attached his approving signature to the Marshall bill outlawing "salary-buying" and placing under state regulation on the activities of persons and concerns heretofore exacting excessive interest for loans made on salaries, or wages, of workers.

HOOPER AGAINST TAX REDUCTION

Legislators Will Follow Wishes of Executive in Matter

Washington, April 6.—President Hoover's opposition to a further reduction of federal taxes because of the government's "budget is balanced," among other things, is being backed by a like sentiment among congressional leaders, today killed a bill for a tax reduction. The bill was introduced by Representative C. C. Brannan of Ohio for another year at least, and probably for two years.

Following the president's wishes, administration leaders will oppose amendment of tax reduction legislation at the coming special session at the end of the year. This would regularize the tax relief until the short session, beginning in December, 1929.

THE DESERT
Written by Josephine Gottschalk was broadcast over the radio. The Desert!—what glories, silent—sublime. What secrets it holds in its keeping! It collects for the laughter in weeping. So cruel—yet so kind, so harsh—yet so tender. 'Tis a land of most violent extremes. A mecca of hopes and plans soaring high. A graveyard of shattered dreams. To me 'tis both graveyard and mecca. It has given me sorrow and joy. My shattered dreams are buried—deep. Too deep for their ghosts to annoy! Though every smile has cost two tears. And every joy two sorrows. I'm getting face value in return. In the hope of the coming 'morrow. For soon tomorrow will be today. And each one means "Health Ahead." With strength to forget "what might have been." And to think of "what will be." Instead. So when the desert makes me think Of those for whom I yearn, I force a laugh and forget my blues. For just see what I get in return. 82h

Shortstops Growing Magnates Gray Hairs

All anybody seems to hear around the training camps this year are tales of woe, few of joy, regarding the hard luck with shortstops. That much needed cog which plays between second and third on every baseball nine. Bill Cissell, left, the $125,000 beaut of the White Sox, seems to be losing his grip and a sub is being roomed for his berth. Branch Rickey gets a headache every time he looks at Thevenow, upper center, in a Phillie uniform, where the former St. Louis star is performing in great style. Miller Huggins just hugs himself with joy that he has Leo Durocher, lower center, since his Pacific coast buy. Lyn Lary hasn't measured up to big league stuff. Then down in the Quaker City Connie Mack is having heart failure because his best bet, Jim Boley, right, is showing signs of a bum arm. Maybe it's all camp gossip, but the squawks sound real and the happy ones are telling the world.

Evidently John McGraw In Not Satisfied With His Giants

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, April 6.—If it is true that a ball team is no stronger than its second baseman, then, in the elegant phraseology of the euboean, John McGraw must be getting ready to lay an egg with his New York Giants this season.

Mr. McGraw has been pausing ever and anon in his travels through the south to issue statements in a most brash and truculent vein, and indeed, his sales talk is not without merit, considering the club's record of 13 victories in 15 starts.

But all of this mouth wash ran for Mrs. Sweeney's husband when the club reached Hot Springs, the other day and Mr. McGraw felt constrained to request Casey Stengel, his former hired man, to shift his Toledo line up in order that John might look at Eddie Moore for a few innings. True, he had looked at Edward almost incessantly while the Pittsburgh club in 1926 and the Boston club in 1927 and 1928 were finding out that they didn't really care for him in a big way.

But a man will look at anything, if over a period of weeks, he has been looking mostly at nothing.

The same game says Melvin Ott, the reformed catcher and present outfielder, on second base and Andy Reese on the bench. They said Andy needed a rest, whereas everybody with the club knows that what he actually needs is a permanent assignment to the outfield.

Mr. McGraw, it seems, also wished to gaze upon Herb Thomas in the act of performing some second-basing, so he contrived to have the young man appear on Mr. Stengel's behalf before the game was over.

In Playhouses Of Salem

Richard Dix At State

Richard Dix in the Paramount Picture "Redskin"

A new story of tribal prejudice, "The Redskin" is at the Grand next week, with Richard Dix in the leading role.

The passing week viewed a change in the assortment of entertainment available in Salem theatres. The Royal inaugurated the "talkie" and showed several vaudeville acts, together with bringing that celebrity of the wrestling ring—Virginia Mercereau—while in both the State and Grand the latest releases of Hollywood were flashed on the silver screen.

Together with the advancement in the brand of cinematic entertainment, came the announcement by Manager Virgil Rakestrow of the State and Grand, that he proposed to install sound and talking devices at the State, and will inaugurate the change with the showing of either Douglas Fairbanks' "The Iron Mask" or Mary Pickford's "Coquette."

A real summer theatrical season appears in store for Salem screen addicts.

Next Week's Bill

Next week the Royal shows "The Circus Kid" on Monday and Tuesday, "The Head of the Family," Wednesday and Thursday, and closes the week with Hoot Gibson's "King of the Rodeo."

Two really big affairs are carded for each of the other playhouses, during the six days when such pictures as "Redskin," "Why Be Good?" and "Wolf Song" are offered.

"Why Be Good" is heralded as a "schooner" picture, and features Colleen Moore and Neil Hamilton. It's billed as one of those peppy, snappy, affairs with a touch of daring that delight goers of all ages and individualities. It's shown at the State three days, starting Monday.

Dix In Indian Role
Then on the first four days of the week, at the Grand, Richard Dix, who's been spoken of more or less as resembling a "redskin" takes just such a role, when he enacts the heart-rending, picturesque character of one of the vanishing race in "The Redskin." Technicolor effects are one of the marvelous features of the vehicle.

New Actress
The show introduces a new actress, one Gladys Belmont, who plays the lead opposite Dix, as a square in a rival tribe. Contrary to all tribal traditions they fall in love while both are attending schools, where Dix is a great athlete. A misunderstanding between himself and his colleagues arises, he leaves college, and returns to his Indian home, where he becomes an outcast.

It is an admirably fine plot, making up an extraordinary story. "Circus Kid" is that scenario which fans went wild over in Cleveland several months back, and stars Joe Brown, Franklin Darro, and Helen Costello, Poodles Hannsford and his world-famous troupe of entertainers give a real big tent color to the narrative.

A frothy mélange of laughs, love interest and wit—this "Head of the Family," the second of the Royal's

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

Salads are like chess. With only a few units as a basis, the number of combinations are innumerable. You could serve salad every day for months, and not repeat the combination.

To begin with, you have half a dozen kinds of lettuce as a foundation. There's Boston lettuce (which incidentally, doesn't come from Boston, but from the South). This is the most common type in the market, and the large, loose heads, if they are first rate, are like celery in this fact, that you can use every bit. The heart is the choice portion, for salad, and the core should be sliced and served with it. The outer, greener leaves on the outside may be shredded and used as a salad or cooked as a green vegetable.

Iceberg is the solid-packed lettuce which comes from the West, and is naturally crisper than the Boston variety. Romaine is the long-leaved lettuce, and is especially convenient when served as the basis for mixtures of vegetables, fruit or other combinations.

Endive is the very delicate lettuce. You see it packed in paper-lined boxes and it is usually sold by the pound. It is the cleanest of all lettuces, requiring no washing or trimming. The heads are small, about three to five inches long, and an inch thick, with a pale yellow color.

Endive, like chicory and escarole, has a slightly bitter flavor, and some people regard it as an acquired taste, like olives or caviar. When buying lettuce, choose the heads that are fairly blanch and not too green, free from any brown spots, and heavy for size. Lettuce that feels too light in the hand may be old and dried out.

Here are a few suggestions for salad combinations, suitable either as the main part of luncheon, or in smaller quantity, as the salad course at dinner:

1. Lettuce with French dressing and chopped olives. Any of the lettuces may be served in this way.
2. Watercress added to French dressing.
3. Chopped cabbage and green peppers, French dressing.
4. Slices of peeled orange and grapefruit, alternately laid on Romaine leaves, French dressing made with lemon instead of vinegar.

5. Cold boiled peas and walnuts, mixed with mayonnaise.
6. Russian dressing. Either may

The four o'clock hour demands a costume all its own, as everybody knows. Here is one that is sure to please. onaise or sour cream mixed with chili sauce.

7. Cream cheese balls and French dressing.
8. Celery, Spanish onion and green pepper chopped and mixed with French dressing.
9. Cold boiled peas and walnuts, mayonnaise dressing.
10. Green mayonnaise. (Chop parsley and add to plain mayonnaise).
11. Chopped cabbage and chopped green peppers, mayonnaise.
12. Mayonnaise mixed with chopped pickles and chopped capers.
13. Waldorf salad. Chopped celery, walnuts and apples, with mayonnaise.
14. Cold cooked carrots, pickles and olives, diced, and mixed with mayonnaise.
15. Slices of tomato and asparagus tips, mayonnaise.

Left-over vegetables, if plain boiled, can be used to form an interesting mixture for salad. If you keep on hand a few jars of pickles, olives, pimiento, you can prepare an attractive salad at a moment's notice.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, April 6.—Spring and summer sports costumes are very simple but very chic, the kind of ensemble every woman loves to wear for a walk in the Bois, which means Boule, of course, tea at the country club or a motor trip to the country with déjeuner at a quaint old-world inn.

The sports ensemble generally consists of jumper and skirt with a short jacket set off by a striking scarf. The skirts are made easy for walking by groups of pleats at the sides or front, or perhaps by girdles, and many are killed or laid in narrow box-pleats. Tweed, homespun, jersey, woolen reps and the new jersey tweed are the materials most in use. The latter is perhaps the most popular, having all the appearance of English tweed and all the suppleness of jersey. On some of the new models, the edges are

Ten Reasons why 300,000 careful buyers have chosen the New Chevrolet Six since January 1st

Ever since the date of its introduction, the new Chevrolet Six has swept triumphantly on to greater and greater heights of popularity. Value for value and price for price—buyers have compared it with other cars in the low-price field. And the result has been an overwhelming public preference—over 300,000 buyers since January 1st. And everywhere the enthusiasm is constantly increasing—for the new Chevrolet Six combines, as does no other car in the world, those ten great fundamental factors which careful buyers are now demanding in the cars they buy.

6-Cylinder Smoothness

Due to the finer inherent balance of its six-cylinder valve-in-head motor, the new Chevrolet provides that smooth, quiet, flexible performance which is the distinguishing characteristic of the truly fine automobile. At every speed, the power is delivered easily, freely and without annoying vibration. You can ride and drive for hours without annoying rumble or noise fatigue—every mile a delight for both driver and passengers.

6-Cylinder Getaway

And in sheer brilliance of performance, as well as in smoothness and quietness of operation, the new Chevrolet Six is a revelation. An automatic acceleration pump results in remarkably fast acceleration whenever the accelerator is suddenly depressed. And a new high-compression, non-detonating cylinder head eliminates every trace of "lugging"—even when you have occasion to accelerate swiftly in high gear.

6-Cylinder Speed

Naturally, Chevrolet's powerful six-cylinder valve-in-head motor might be expected to provide speed in abundance. But even more important than the speed of the new Chevrolet Six is the smooth, quiet, restful comfort you experience at every point on the speedometer. You can open the throttle wide with a feeling of complete security—and you come to the end of a full day's drive entirely free from the weariness caused by engine noise and body rumble.

6-Cylinder Power

The great reserve power of the new Chevrolet Six is a constant delight. The steepest hills are taken with ease. Heavy roads are negotiated without the necessity for frequent gear-shifting. And even at the higher speeds, there is always that feeling of confidence which comes from the knowledge that additional power is at hand... instantly available for whatever need may arise.

Modern Safety Features

The new Chevrolet Six is equipped with every modern safety and convenience feature—typified by a full ball bearing steering mechanism, non-locking 4-wheel brakes with separate emergency brake, foot controlled adjustable two-beam headlights, automatic fuel pump, theft-proof Electro-lock, electric motor temperature indicator, and Fisher VV windshield and adjustable driver's seat in all closed models. As a result, it is one of the easiest and safest cars in the world to handle.

Better Than 20 Miles Per Gallon

The marvelous performance of the Chevrolet Six would be considered exceptional in any automobile. But in the new Chevrolet it is nothing short of sensational—for here it is combined with operating economy of better than 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline. As a result, those who can afford to own any automobile can afford to own and operate a Chevrolet Six!

Exceptional Riding Comfort

Another vital factor that has influenced hundreds of thousands in their selection of the new Chevrolet Six is its exceptional riding comfort. Built on a wheelbase of 107 inches... offering the deep-cushioned luxury of bodies by Fisher... and with the entire upper structure cradled on four long semi-elliptic shock absorber springs—it travels the roughest highways with amazing comfort. And its balance on turns and curves is equally exceptional—for the rigid frame and the long springs reduce sidesway to the minimum.

Beautiful Fisher Bodies

The marvelous bodies on the Chevrolet Six reveal, as never before, the matchless artistry that has made the Fisher name renowned throughout the world for excellence in coachcraft. Longer, lower and roomier... finished in attractive, long-lasting colors... and upholstered in rich deep-tufted fabrics that give to the interiors an air of custom elegance—they introduce into the low-price field an entirely new measure of style and distinction.

Proved Dependability

Before the new Chevrolet Six was presented to the public, it had been tested for more than a million miles on the roads of the General Motors Proving Ground. Never did a new motor car go into the hands of its owners more thoroughly proved in every detail. And now, reports of its performance on the highways of the nation pay glowing tribute to its endurance and dependability.

Amazingly Low Prices

Many people do not realize that this marvelous new six-cylinder Chevrolet is actually offered in the price range of the four.
